Farmingville, NY - On Sunday, May 17, 2015, Supervisor Ed Romaine (right), Councilman Kevin LaValle (left), and Councilwoman Connie Kepert (center) attended the Brookhaven Town Volunteer Firefighters Museum's Annual Memorial Day Services at Fireman's Park in Ridge. At the ceremony, names were read of those that answered their last alarm from May 2014 to May 2015.

Supervisor Romaine said, "Words cannot express the gratitude that I have for firefighters who sacrifice so much to serve the residents of our community. It is an honor to speak at this Memorial Day service and get the opportunity to thank them for making Brookhaven a safer place to live."

"I am always honored to attend the Brookhaven Firefighter's Museum Annual Memorial Day Services," said Councilwoman Kepert. "It is an event where we can pause to remember those who have selflessly dedicated themselves to protecting the residents of the Town of Brookhaven."

Councilman LaValle said, "It was an honor to recognize such a dedicated group of people who sacrifice their time and put themselves in harm's way to protect life and property. I thank every firefighter for their service to the community."
